JAS. F. DOSS

Lust week by an unfortunate error we got James F. Doss labeled in the democratic column as a candidate for sheriff, when it should have been a republican joining the glad throng of republican candidates that goes marching along for the office of nigh sheriff of Marion county. Our error weeks before Mr. Doss quit the employ of the N., C. & St. L. MR. JOHN K. BROWN.

The following from the Sweetwater. Tenn., Telephone, is a account of the death and burial of Mr. John K. Brown, father of W. A. Brown, senior member of the firm of W. A. Brown & Co., Hardware Dealers, Whitwell:

"Another has been removed from our midst, another gone Home to his reward. The Angel visited our city on Tuesday night at ten forty o'clock, and hovered around the bed of one of the oldest citizens in the community, Mr. John K. Brown, and called him to "come up higher."

Mr. Brown had been ill for several weeks and during this time little hope had been entertained for his recovery. for his strength had ebbed to a lew state and his advanced age was against him. He was in his eighty-ninth year, and had been a prominent resident of this city for more than fifty years, having come here from Sequatchie Valley. Since the removal of his son, W. A. Brown, to Pikeville some ten years ago, "Grandpa" Brown, as he was familiarly called, has made his home with his son, J. L. Brown. Mr. Brown has been one of the most prominent and wealthy citizens of the town, and, until his advanced age prevented, he mixed and mingled in the business circles, and his advice and counsel will be missed. He was a devout Christian and a faithful member of the M. E. Church, South, of this city, and his pew was seldom vacant. In his "going out" the church loses one of her most loyal members. Mr. Brown is survived by the following children: W. A. Brown, Mrs. Ida Ross, Pikeville, Jno. L. Brown, of this city, and some twelve or fourteen grand-children and nine greatgrand-children.

The funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at the M. E. Church, and will be conducted by Rev. Brown and Rev. I. P. Murphey, of Knoxville.
